Skawina, October 2019

Skawina – The royal city invites.

City was founded by the Casimir the Great in the 1364. It is surrounded by the 16 village councils and it occupies the area of 100,2 km², with the number of 41339 residents. Formerly, Skawina was an industrial city but nowadays, it is a green, attractive and open to a new investments place. In the center of the city, You will find a beautiful park area, with the „Sokół” Palace in the middle of it. Skawina is a great place for sports and activities, especially by the cycling and tourist routes. There are also „Camena” Swimming Pool, Sports Halls, „Orlik” Football Courts and the nice view areas. Because of the location, it seems to be a perfect place to stay here and visit the Cracow, Wieliczka, Wadowice and Kalwaria Zebrzydowska. Even if You stay only in the Municipality of Skawina, You will find there many interesting, historical facilities and monuments.
